

Warranty Disclaimer

Edgemate warrants the quality of our products only. The application and processing of Edgemate products is beyond our control and therefore is the sole responsibility of the user and or dealer. Due to varying procedures and conditions, Edgemate's written or verbal instructions are based on experience with our products, and we strongly recommend thorough inspection and testing of the product prior to actual use.

In the event of a defective product claim, Edgemate requires that samples showing the defect be submitted for inspection and testing to verify the alleged claim. This may be done on site through the use of Edgemate personnel or agents under contract with Edgemate by actual samples submitted to Edgemate. In the event of confirmation that the status of the material in question is in fact defective, Edgemate warrants the replacement value of the Edgemate materials only. Edgemate liability will not exceed the value of the Edgemate material involved. Edgemate is not responsible for any consequential damages.

Shipping Damage

In the event of shipping damage, the customer invoiced is responsible for documenting the damage on their receiving documents prior to placing a claim with Edgemate. This documentation must be supplied to Edgemate to complete any shipping claim placed with Edgemate. Once the claim is verified by the shipping carrier Edgemate will issue credit.

Discrepancies on order Acknowledgements

It is strongly recommended that the customer verify within 24 hours pricing, products and shipping method confirmed on all orders via the order acknowledgement.

Order Cancellations

Edgemate will accept order cancellations for stock materials up to 48 hours prior to shipment. Edgemate will not accept any order cancellation for non-stock or custom products unless notification occurs to Edgemate within 24 hours of order placement. If raw materials or production have been started on any custom product no cancellations will be allowed.

Discrepancies on packing lists

Any discrepancy resulting in a request for credit and or replacement must be reported within three working days of receipt by the customer and verified by Edgemate. Edgemate does not ship any no-charge replacement materials. In the event of a replacement the materials will be processed and billed as a new order with credit against the original invoiced order completed to correct the original order.

Returns

Edgemate does not accept returns of any non-stock or custom produced materials. Edgemate will not accept any material older than one year from the actual ship date of the material regardless of its condition. In the event of a customer wishing to return stock materials less than one year old which are not considered defective products by Edgemate there will be a 15% restocking charge deducted from the credit and the returning entity must pay all freight charges. In addition, the returning entity is responsible for packaging and shipment of said return to ensure the materials are received in good condition by Edgemate upon return. Edgemate will not accept any returned goods without an RMA (Returned Material Authorization).

Defective Materials

Materials deemed to be defective by the customer must be inspected by either Edgemate through samples supplied by the customer or onsite inspection by an Edgemate employee, or by an agent under contract by Edgemate. Upon inspection it will be determined to either substantiate the defective claim or deny the claim, if the claim is substantiated then an RMA may be issued in which the customer will be instructed to destroy the material in the field or returned to Edgemate at Edgemate's expense. Credit for return material will be done within 30 days of receipt by Edgemate and are subject to the condition of the material when received at Edgemate. Edgemate's liability is limited to the replacement cost of the original invoiced materials only.